The image shows a computer monitor with a black bezel. The screen displays the website for AiOP (art in odd places). At the top, there's a navigation bar with links for 'ABOUT', 'BLOG', 'DONATE', 'PAST YEARS', 'PRESS', and 'SHOP'. To the right of the navigation bar is a pink button with white text that reads 'UPCOMING FESTIVAL : APPLY NOW'. Below the navigation bar, a banner features the text 'Presenting visual and performance art in unexpected public spaces.' In the center of the screen is a photograph of a group of people standing behind a dark, reflective surface. Their reflections are clearly visible, creating a symmetrical effect. To the right of the reflective surface, a group of spectators stands on a cobblestone street, watching the performers. The background of the website shows a city street with buildings and signs.
